Fernando J. Rovira-Rullán is a Capital Member of Ferraiuoli, and Chair of its Practice Management Committee. His principal areas of practice include mergers and acquisitions with extensive local and cross border experience, corporate, governance and fiduciary duties, private equity, borrower counsel commercial lending, complex contracts, and intellectual property law.

He currently serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Puerto Rico School of Law where for more than two decades he has offered multiple courses including Corporate Law and Mergers and Acquisitions.

Fernando joined Ferraiuoli after having served as Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel of a publicly traded financial institution. He started his career in the 1990s as a corporate attorney at another of Puerto Rico's full service corporate law firms.

He is the Co-President of the Puerto Rico Legal Coalition, a nonprofit organization which facilitates that members of its network of independent attorneys and law firms provide pro-bono legal advice, counseling and education to other nonprofits and community-based groups that serve the needs of Puerto Rico's most vulnerable communities.

Why Ferraiuoli?

Ferraiuoli is unique in its approach to serving clients providing true reliability while adding real value. For many clients, Ferraiuoli is their in-house legal department and for others it's their most trusted business partner. We make it our priority to provide outstanding legal representation that recognizes their business needs and goals. This philosophy also extends to our willingness to devise practical alternative fee arrangements that satisfy our mutual business objectives.

Why do your clients come to you?

Clients come to us because we offer them sophisticated support in key transactions and other matters but without losing practicality and a results-oriented approach. Ultimately, we strive to offer a quality service at times when the client needs it the most. From the moment a client hires us, we serve them in a way that reflects and is commensurate with the trust they have placed in us. We will do everything within our ability to fully comply with their demands in an efficient and ultimately successful manner.

What do you find most rewarding?

Working with an amazingly talented group of people each day in a healthy and productive work environment. Also, to see how our clients give us more work each day in a very organic fashion. This makes me feel very proud and therefore motivates me to continue to give all my talent and abilities to my clients and colleagues. This is, in essence our credo – top notch work ethic, honesty, integrity, trust and friendship.
