Camille Rodríguez-Franceschini is Member in the firm's Commercial Real Estate & Notarial Practice and Corporate Practice Groups. Prior to becoming an Associate, Camille participated in Ferraiuoli's Summer Program in 2013, and continued to work as a law clerk, where she assisted attorneys in the Corporate, Commercial Litigation and Labor & Employment Law Practice Groups.

As a law clerk, Camille assisted attorneys, mainly within the Corporate Practice Group in multiple tasks and assignments including general corporate matters, collateral revisions, real estate transactions, and negotiation of agreements, as well as in-depth legal research.

During her years as a law student, she participated in an internship program at the Citibank International PLC Corporate Offices in Madrid, Spain where she assisted the Country General Counsel and their Legal team in corporate banking matters. In addition, Camille was a law clerk at another law firm in San Juan where she acquired practical experience and exposure to substantive and procedural aspects of labor litigation and employment law.
