

Becky M. López-Freytes

Special Counsel

Direct Dial: (787) 777-1321 | Fax: (787) 766-7001

blopez@ferraiuoli.com

Becky M. López-Freytes is Special Counsel with the firm and practices with the Corporate and Commercial Real Estate and Notarial Practice Groups. Her main areas of practice are real estate and corporate law as well as banking and regulatory law. Becky has experience in general corporate matters such as:

- assisting entities with the establishment of their operations locally and abroad
- organization of corporations, limited liability companies and partnerships
- mergers and acquisitions
- corporate governance matters and counseling
- contract negotiation and review

Before joining Ferraiuoli, Becky worked as Vice-President and Assistant General Counsel for a publicly traded financial institution for over 5 years and she also worked as a law clerk at various metro area law firms as well as for the Federal District Court.

Representative Cases or Transactions

- Successfully assisted the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico in a transaction regarding the Puerto Rico Infrastructure Financing Authority's purchase of a multimillion dollar office building as well as in the amendment of numerous lines of credit with other governmental bodies.

Practice Areas

Commercial Real Estate & Notarial Practice

Corporate

Banking & Financial Services Regulation
Corporate Governance & Fiduciary Duties
Emerging & Start-Up Companies

Education

University of Puerto Rico School of Law,
J.D., 2001

Bradley University, B.A. in International
Business, 1998

Bar Admissions

Commonwealth of Puerto Rico